Course leaders comments

This internship course really relies on the student's ability to secure good placements, and that I find that they really do. This year we only had 3 students for unclear reasons whereas the previous year had 11. My conclusion is that the best thing we could do for this course would be to offer better support for students to allow more to get internship positions. I believe this is especially true for our international students. Unfortunately I believe this is not within the possibilities of what a course leader can do, but i will try to connect with SLU alumni to see if there might be some ways to coordinate placements and circulate possibilities among prospective students for this course.

What I will do for next year is however to update the instructions which are a little bit old and unwieldy.
