Course leaders comments

Overall, the students appreciate the course.

It is challenging to start with students still waiting for Visa and late arrivals, but the agroforestry theme week 2 seems to get all going and they do enjoy to work in small groups.

One student says that his/her pre-knowledge of food security and circular economy was absent – but no comments about difficulties to follow the lectures or complete the tasks.

Some students want more direct feedback in the class room.

The students have used only 30h per week, so it could be improved.
