Course leaders comments

It is quite hard to assess the evaluation report, since only four people have answered. This course is thematically and logically connected to the next course in social theory, i.e. process of research, so I will try to persuade the students to fill out the evaluation of the forthcoming course, which is connected to this one, and give my detailed comments to both courses.

The reason why the courses are divided into two 7,5 credit courses instead of a single course is that the first course is taken by master students from Uppsala, who pay for the course to SLU and only take 7,5 credits.
