Course leaders comments

This year's course has been great fun. It was an exceptional big group of students, but all of them were well motivated and active. I can see from the comments that it is still a big workload for many of the students, but it seems that it still worked well. When looking at the results we can see that most of the students have reached the learning goals very well, and the grades are overall high. For next year, we will look over the themes once again. Next year we hope we will also have some attending PhD students and that will require some changes in the course.
