Course evaluation

The course evaluation had a higher answer rate than in previous years with 42%. The majority thought that the overall impression of the course was good (median 4 of 5), and they could see that the course correlated with the course "goal". Previous knowledge of the students was sufficient to utilise the course (median 5 of 5) and the course lectures, exercises and literature supported their learning (median 5 of 5), which also were applied to the social and physical environment (median 5 of 5 on both). On average the students have spent about 26 hours or more per week (median 26-36 hours). Block I and Block II scored a median of 4 out of 5 on overall opinion on lectures, excursions and exercises. Block III and Block IV scored a median of 5 out of 5. The Journal Club had a lower score with a 3 out of 5 median. The speed talks as well as the review process in the project work scored a median of 4 out of 5. The questions concerning the project work all scored a median of 5 out of 5.

In conclusion, the students who answered the course evaluation were satisfied with the course.
